My last day at school is still fresh in my memory. I felt very relaxed because there was no teaching work that day. My heavy bag was off my back at last. It was a big relief. I took the bus quite leisurely and got off at the school bus stop. I made my way through small groups of schoolfellows, talking noisily and saying goodbyes to each other. Our juniors of ninth class hosted a farewell party and entertained us to a variety of sweet-meat and tea.

Our worthy headmaster and kind teachers also participated. Formal farewell speeches were made on the occasion. A boy sang a ghazal and delighted the audience with his melodious voice. Finally, the headmaster addressed the gathering and advised the students to work with devotion and be well-mannered to succeed and prosper in life. Before dispersing, we thanked our juniors for their nice farewell.
